VACCINATION PROBLEM NEARLY DISRUPTS SUNNY SIDE SCHOOL

Father Insists Children Must Attend School, Vaccinated or Not

SUPERINTENDENT SAYS NOT

Trouble over the matter of vaccination of school pupils threatens to disrupt the Sunny Side school opposite Monongahela in Allegheny county. Legal proceedings are expected at almost any time, legal advice having already been taken by some of the school officials, following the demand of County Superintendent Samuel Hamilton that children who had not been vaccinated be prohibited from attending school. Inasmuch as non attendance will run children around of the truancy law, and inasmuch as parents seem not inclined to obey the injunctions of the county superintendent to have arms of their children scratched, the matter is in the air. Practically no sessions were held Tuesday or Wednesday of this week at the school. A few days ago County Superintendent Hamilton visited the school and in one of the upper grades asked how many pupils there were who had not been vaccinated. A number of hands went up. The county superintendent notified Principal S. Walker of the schools that action would have to be taken immediately. Unvaccinated children were sent home. Later a father of one demanded Principal Walker to admit the child. The demand was turned down. The father took his children into the school room. Other children thereupon left the room, stating they would not attend with those unvaccinated. The secretary of the school board and teacher went to Monongahela, where legal advice was taken. Now the outcome is being awaited.

MEMBERS OF GELDER FAMILY

HONOR MRS. WILLIAM GELDER

Thanksgiving day was an occasion of rare joy to Mrs. William Gelder of Crest avenue, since it served to commemorate her 68th birthday. In compliment to her members of the Gelder family gathered at an all day reunion. Family dinner and supper was served, there being 16 gathered around the festive board.

Not only did the occasion mark Mrs. Gelder's birthday but it also marked the anniversary of the opening of the Gelder store on Crest avenue by Mr. Gelder 17 years ago.

SPEEDWAY EVENTS SET AHEAD A DAY

Famous Drivers to Dedicate Uniontown Track Saturday Afternoon

JOHNNY AITKEN TO BE THERE

Postponement of the Uniontown speedway races from Thanksgiving afternoon until Saturday did not deter several thousand people from various parts of Pennsylvania from visiting what is destined to become one of America's most noted tracks. A crowd was entertained by practice races that proved thrilling.

The same race program as programmed for Thanksgiving day will be carried out Saturday. The famous Johnny Aitken, manager of the Premier racing team is expected to arrive today for participation in tomorrow's events. With him present, with a single exception the most famous racers in America will be entered in the various events. Not a speedway in the country could offer a classier lot of drivers.

As was originally planned for Thanksgiving day a special train will be run Saturday to the speedway on both the Pennsylvania Monongahela Division and the Pennsylvania South-west branches. Hundreds of Monongahela valley people are expected to attend the big events. Arrangements have been made to change the usual admission fee of $1.

Card of Thanks.
We desire to express our appreciation of the kindness bestowed upon us in our time of bereavement, the death of our son Kenneth. Especially do we wish to thank the minister, the singers, Sunday school and those who sent floral tributes.

ILL TWO WEEKS, MRS. NUTT DIES

Member of Well Known Family Succumbs to Liver and Stomach Trouble

FUNERAL TO BE HELD SUNDAY

From an illness of about two weeks from liver and stomach trouble, Mrs. Ella Nutt, aged 59 years, wife of Capt. James T. Nutt of North Charleroi and a well known woman of the community died at her home at 5:25 o'clock Thanksgiving evening. Two weeks ago Wednesday Mrs. Nutt went to Bentleyville to visit a sister. While there she took seriously ill. She was brought home and steadily grew worse.

Mrs. Nutt was born in Rices Landing, being a member of a family of 12. Her maiden name was Ella McClain. In 1874 she was married at Rices Landing to Mr. Nutt. They lived in Rices Landing a time, then moved to North Charleroi.

Besides the husband, two daughters survive, Mrs. Lucrecia Gibe of Ohio and Mrs. Reba Robinson of Point Comfort, Virginia.

Short funeral services will be held Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the late home and the body will be taken on the 11:22 train Sunday morning to Rices Landing, where further services will be held at the Hewitt Presbyterian church a mile back of Rices Landing. Interment will take place in the cemetery there.

NEW SCHOOL SYSTEM TO BE TRIED IN MONESSEN

The Platoon system, used successfully in many other cities will be established in Monessen when the schools open next fall. The day is divided into eight equal parts. When the students assemble in the morning half of them go to class rooms and half to eight special rooms for play, music, drawing, science and application named training, assembly, domestic science and library study. There they remain four hours. Then the two halves interchange. This constitutes a day's work.

In the assembly room various subjects are illustrated by means of the stereopticon lantern, there is dramatizing of stories and the art of expressing ones self before a crowd is taught.

In the assembly-rooms various subjects are illustrated by means of the stereopticon lantern, there is dramatizing of stories, and the art of expressing ones self before a crowd is taught.

In the manual training room small boys up to the sixth grade, are taught how to use their hands in the making of sleds, boxes, blocks, etc.

In the domestic science room, small girls will be taught to cut out paper dolls, animals etc., sewing and other things in progression.

A special teacher is assigned to the library to instruct pupils how to study. She is in constant attendance.

In the playroom, an instructor is in charge whose duty is to teach the science and art in games and playing.

This is a summary of the many sides of the system. Where it has been established in other cities it has

CHURCH SOCIAL EVENTS ENJOYED

St. Jerome's Congregation Holds Dance and Euchre But No Tea Party

ABLE COMMITTEES IN CHARGE

Popular and entertaining social events of the Thanksgiving season were the annual Thanksgiving dance and euchre given by members of St. Jerome's church congregation. The dance was an event of Wednesday evening and the euchre Thursday evening, the two combined representing the outgrowth of the Tea Party program that in former years marked the Thanksgiving season. The Tea Party was not held on account of the prevailing high prices of food products.

Might's auditorium was used for the dancing, with Jenkins orchestra providing the music. Couples came from all along the valley and the affair was highly enjoyed.

The euchre Thursday evening was given in St. Jerome's Lyceum, and like the dance of the previous evening drew a big crowd. Playing was enjoyed during the evening and valuable favors were awarded. One of the features was the distribution of theatre tickets, 3486 to the Palace, 2485 to the Majestic and 2995 to the Coyle.

The committee in charge of the dance was composed of John Maines, George Bailey, A. N. Kiefer, F. G. Bailey and C. Minehan and the committee actively in charge of the euchre consisted of M. T. Crowley, Mrs. William High and Mrs. A. N. Kiefer.

CARROLL TOWNSHIP CASE ADJUSTED AFTER CALLING

The last case to be called before court adjournment Wednesday was the suit of W. W. Piper against the Philadelphia Co., a claim for damages for the laying of a pipe line across a farm in Carroll township. It appears that a line was laid across the farm, at the time it was owned by Joseph J. Boyle. The right was given, it appears, by an aunt of J. J. Boyle, as guardian. However the question is raised that no order of court was secured by the guardian to grant this right. After Mr. Piper came into possession of the farm the company entered thereon to lay another line. On this is based the claim for damage for trespass. The farm was recently sold by Piper to another party. After the case was called an adjustment was reached.

WELL KNOWN DUNLEVY MAN DIES FROM INJURIES IN SLATE FALL

Vincent Castelli, aged 51 years, well known as a miner of Dunlevy, died Thanksgiving day at the Mercy hospital in Pittsburgh from injuries received when caught under a fall of slate in the Tremont mine Wednesday afternoon. One of his limbs was nearly severed and he suffered other injuries. Loss of blood was the direct cause of death.

Castelli came to Dunlevy from South America. He is an Italian and is secretary of the Garibaldi society of Dunlevy. He was married and leaves his widow, two sons and two daughters.

CHARLEROI TAKES ITS FINAL GAME

Wins Turkey Day Contest From Donora in Great Football Struggle

ENTIRE LOCAL TEAM STARS

Arguments were all proven and right, title and interest earned to the mythical Monongahela valley high school football championship by Charleroi high school Thanksgiving afternoon in wrestling honors from the Donora high school eleven on the Charleroi field. Though disfigured by a rather uncertain quality of official conduct and unfortunate disagreements the game still took rank as a truly deserved the victory that it won, 26 to 7.

All touchdowns made by Charleroi were spectacular. One wouldn't have been so much so had it not happened that Foreman, from Donora holding position as umpire in the absence of Fain from W. & J. assumed a claim, he could not prove. This was in the third quarter. Charleroi lads pushed the ball to Donora's half-inch line or thereabouts. With four downs Lowstuter was sent into the pile. Referee Sterret seized the pigskin and claimed touchdown. Presently Umpire Foreman appeared from somewhere and objected. It took from that sunny part of the afternoon to the twilight gloom for a decision to be reached and then Head Coach Grimm had to do the deciding, by telling Referee Sterret to start the game, something that the referee had neglected to think about up until then. The touchdown was counted and two more were made before the game ended.

Stahlman made the first touchdown in the second quarter, marking his last high school game by a wonderful 60 yard run. Headed by Lowstuter, furnishing a brilliant interference, he broke around right end and threaded his way through the visiting aggregation to plant the ball behind the bars. Eagre easily kicked goal.

THREE ADDRESSES ARE MADE

Union Thanksgiving-services were held and an offering taken for work among the needy on Thanksgiving evening at Christ Lutheran church. The annual report of the activities of the Associated Board of Charities was made in program form by Dr. J. W. Hunter, an official of the board. Receipts of the board were totaled as follows: From Washington county poor board $126.40; cash from other sources $434.17; Westmoreland county poor board $54; local Red Cross society $62.44; clothing, coal, shoes and groceries donated, value, $108. Expenditures—groceries and provisions $375.51; shoes $30.08; clothing and dry goods $10.20; coal $21.21; transportation and care of tuberculous patients $62.44; incidental and non classified expenses $124.47.

In the report it is stated that a cash balance of only $65.50 is on hand, and no clothing, shoes, or other goods on hand. Since the last annual report it is stated in the report the board has relieved 28 families and 67 children under the age of 12 years.

Rev. W. G. Carl was in charge of the union services. A union choir directed by Prof. I. T. Daniel, with Miss Bethel Bowman pianist rendered special music, singing two anthems, "O Lord How Manifold," Barnby and "Ye Shall Dwell in the Land." A male quartet consisting of Walter Ailes, Prof. C. P. McCormick, Joseph Pearson and Russell Carl sang, "I Cannot Always Trace the Way."

Three addresses were made, "The President's Proclamation and History of the Day," Rev. C. A. Hartung; "The Grace of Gratitude," Rev. E. N. Duty and "Recounting Some of Our Mercies," Rev. John R. Burson. The opening prayer was by Rev. A. J. Whipple and the benediction by Rev. W. H. Frazier.

No tabulation has yet been made of the offering taken for the uses of the Board of Charities. It is probable that Dr. Hunter will have a report ready tomorrow.

CLEARED FOR CHRISTMAS

Now that Thanksgiving is over and the first of December is here, all we have to do is to prepare for Christmas. It promises to be the busiest Christmas that ever has been known, in expectation of which postoffices over the land and freight and express men are preparing.

Much Christmas shopping already has been done, in spite of the oft-repeated assertion of some merchants that Christmas trading never starts until after Thanksgiving. Many a thrifty housewife has her presents all packed for sending and she is the one who will take advantage of the early days to ship her packages to friends in far distant cities.

This year the postoffice will be more crowded than ever with the heavy bulk of Christmas packages. People are just beginning to appreciate the advantages of the parcel post system, which even yet seems to be in its infancy. But postal employees cannot do more than a limited amount of work and can handle only a limited number of packages in a given time. Hence delays are to be expected during the final week, especially with thoughtless ones neglecting to act promptly in getting their gifts started. Freight is delayed now and will be more delayed later on. Express companies are about rushed to the limit and their Christmas trade will be heavy.

There is a lot to think about in preparing for Christmas, and not much time left to consider. It is purchase now or run the risk of not getting what you want, to say nothing of the trouble of incidental delays and worries that will be the inevitable accompaniment of belated shopping.

WHAT TO DO FOR A COLD

Under the heading of "Things to Do" for a cold a bulletin of the Life Extension Institute of New York City condenses into a table these valuable hints on emergency treatment.

"On the first sign of a cold a hotfoot bath lasting half an hour, and a drink of hot lemonade—or better still, hot flaxseed tea (one-half ounce of whole flaxseed to a pint of boiling water, flavored with lemon peel or licorice root)—will often break its force.

"A brisk purge is also advisable.

"A mild menthol-oil spray may be used occasionally in nose and throat.

"Neck and chest and nostrils may be rubbed with camphorated oil.

"If the throat is sore a gargle or spray of peroxide of hydrogen, one part to three parts water, may be frequently used.

"Also cold compresses to the neck, or gauze pads saturated with equal parts of alcohol and water.

"An alcohol rub-down is also good as a first-aid measure. Used externally, alcohol is a real friend; internally, it is a dangerous enemy.

"The spread of septic sore throat and other germ diseases by milk is very common. Pasteurized milk is safest during epidemics.

"If there is severe headache, face ache, earache, pain in the chest, sore throat, or high fever, there should be no delay in calling a physician."

THOSE WORKED-OUT MINES

When anybody tells you that a coal mine is entirely worked out take the statement with a grain of salt. Nearly all of the so-called "worked-out" mines of the river valley are being operated today and are contributing splendidly toward the relief of industries and the people from the coal famine.

Among the latest to speed up is the old Schoenberger mine at Baird, where the Pittsburgh and Westmoreland company considers it worth while to spend money for the construction of a river chute preparatory to starting river shipments. A few months ago this mine was listed among those worked out.

Working out a mine consists in extracting all the coal that is easily available. Big business has not concerned itself very actively in past years with digging, after the best part of the coal had been mined. Instead it has looked elsewhere and abandoned the mine. Now big business is taking an interest in the coal that was left, and by reason of the high prices is profiting.

WHAT OTHERS THINK

AN INTERESTING EXPERIMENT

Whatever may be thought about the permanent value of the experiment of the city government of Terre Haute, Ind., in supplying coal to its citizens at $2.75 per ton when coal dealers have a rate of $6 per ton there is no escape from one conclusion—it is getting somewhere.

When the residents of a city surrounded by liberally productive coal territory can't get a fuel supply for the winter at less than $6 a ton and the city can give the same coal for less than half that much, the practical contribution of the experiment rises above all question. It may prove a little rough on the coal dealers but if it is a benefit to the rest of the city, sympathy in everyday garb will probably be restrained until the crisis has passed and the necessity less stressful.

The plan would not work under ordinary conditions, but it would not be necessary to try to make it work then. The larger point in the experiment is that the city of Terre Haute saw the squeeze of the situation and applied itself to the prompt relief of its residents. There the high price placed on coal is not because of a scarcity in coal, but a shortage in railroad cars to move the product of the mines. In Terre Haute, as in Pittsburgh, there happens to be coal mines within wagon-hauling distance and it is with one of these the city has made a contract for fuel. The car shortage is lifted bodily out of the case.

The coal dealers may have some ground for complaint, but in the face of a direct threat against the comfort of all the people of the city—the cold which results in relatively great good will be the balance to satisfy everybody except the men who have cars loaded with coal scheduled at $6 a ton when the city is delivering the same kind of coal for $2.75.

However, a sportsman like you'll be able to get out by yourself. There's a gun, and there's a bag of ferrets. Keep well in the wood, and you ought to have plenty of sport."

So way went the cockney sportsman, gloriously arrayed in glaring leggings, deer-stalker and Norfolk jacket.

COUNTY OFFICIALS TO INSPECT BUILDINGS

Commissioners, Controller and Poor Board Will Meet Monday—Tubercular Wards Not Finished And Funds Are Lacking.

The county commissioners, controller and poor board will meet in joint session on Monday next at the county home for the purpose of inspecting the two tubercular buildings erected there and consider the further equipment of them, the heating, plumbing, etc.

The erection of these two buildings, it appears, has been at a greater cost than was first anticipated. The original plan of the poor board was to utilize the waste lumber, etc., from the old portion of the county home, to make a room for the annex. It was figured that at about $800 there could be put up buildings that would be very suitable for taking care of tubercular patients. They would be crude in construction, but similar to some of the cottages used at Cresson.

However after the matter was gone into upon suggestion of the controller, T. J. Underwood, plans were prepared for these tubercular cottages and bids were received. The bid was for $1,314 for each cottage. The cottages have been erected as planned. It further appears that in the specifications no provisions were made for the heating and other plumbing. It is necessary that this be installed before they can be used.

The poor board, by its counsel, at a conference with the commissioners Wednesday, stated that there was a necessity at once for those buildings and he urged that there be no delay in completing them so they can be used. Under the law the poor board has to depend on the commissioners for funds for carrying on the work that comes under the jurisdiction of the poor board. Each year, towards the close of the year, the poor board has to submit an estimate of its expenses for the coming year, and in the year the commissioners include making up the budget for the estimated amount needed by the poor board. The money comes through the general tax levy.

There is no special levy for the poor department. It has been suggested by some that the poor board be done away with and a bureau established for taking care of the poor under the supervision for the commissioners. On the other hand it has been suggested that the poor board be given more powers and have a special fund of their own, so that for every cent they need will not have to be dealt out by the commissioners.

A negro elevator man in a Broadway office building was telling Bide Dudley, the New York theatrical writer, that his landlord had forced him out of his home because he could not meet an increased rental.
"So he dispossessed you?" said Dudley sympathetically.
"Wuss'n dat, boss," said the darky; "he disfatted me!"—Railroad Red Book.

NERVOUS BREAKDOWN

Stamford, Conn., Nurse Tells How She Found Health.

Stamford, Conn.—"I am a nurse and suffered from a nervous breakdown. I had no appetite and could not sleep at night and nothing seemed to help me. By chance I heard of Vinol, and after taking the first bottle I noticed an improvement and four bottles made me well and strong, it gave me a hearty appetite, so I can sleep soundly night or day. I consider Vinol a wonderful tonic." Edith R. Forbes, Stamford, Conn.

The reason Vinol is so successful in overcoming such conditions is because it is a constitutional remedy and goes to the seat of the trouble. It is the greatest strength creator we know—due to the beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptones and glycerophosphates which it contains, all dissolved in a pure medicinal wine.

We have seen so many wonderful recoveries like this right here in Charleroi caused by Vinol, that we feel perfectly safe in offering to return money in every such case where Vinol fails to benefit.

WATER COMPANY SUIT IS DECIDED IN COUNTY COURT

Common pleas court was adjourned Wednesday afternoon until this morning. Ten cases were listed for the last half of the week, but on account of continuances and settlements, there remains only one more to be disposed of.

In the suit of the California Water Co. against John R. Powell, a verdict was taken for the plaintiff company for $75.27. This suit was continued over one term. The claim of the plaintiff company was placed on a bill for water consumed by defendant. The suit was first heard before a justice of the peace and from the decision of the justice the defendant took an appeal to court. He contested the bill on the ground that the water company had not a right to charge him for more than one minimum rate, though he had several meters. The same complaint was before the public service commission of the state. At the first hearing the complaint was dismissed, but since that a rehearing has been granted.

J. P. Slotterbeck & Son, hardware dealers of Fayette City, were plaintiffs in a suit heard in which E. F. Gysagan, of Charleroi, was the defendant. The suit was based on a bill for acorn binder sold the defendant for $120. The defendant refused to pay the bill, averring the binder was not up to its guarantee, and that it was not satisfactory. The binder was bought through the plaintiff firm, from the International Harvester Co. The verdict was for the defendant.

"See How That Corn Comes Clear Off!"

"GETS-IT" Loosens Your Corns Right Off It's the Modern Corn Wonder—Never Fails.

"It's hard to believe anything could act like that in getting a corn off. Why, I just lifted that corn right off with my finger nail. 'GETS-IT' is certainly wonderful!" Yes, "GETS-IT" is the most wonderful corn-cure ever known because you don't have to fool and putter around with your corns, harness them up with bandages or try to dig them out.

"GETS-IT" is a liquid. You put on a few drops in a few seconds. It dries. It's painless. Put your stocking on right over it. Put on your regular shoes. You won't limp, or have a corn 'twist' in your face. The corn, callus or wart will loosen from your toe—off it comes. Glory hallelujah! "GETS-IT" is the biggest selling corn remedy in the world. When you try it, you know why.

"GETS-IT" is sold and recommended by druggists everywhere. 25c a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

PALACE-CHARLEROI

The Thanksgiving day program at the Palace theatre was one of the most notable of any day of the week, for then was featured "The Danger Path," a five reel Red Feature production of especially pleasing scenic and dramatic effect. Another feature the same day was Carter De Haven in a two reel comedy. In the regular program at the Palace this week moving picture lovers found much of an attractive nature. Monday "The Chesters" was filmed and the Tuesday productions included "Lured the Cured," the Animated Weekly and "A Pair of Shadows." There were "Behind Life's Stage," "Beautiful Temples of Ceylon" and "It's All Wrong" as Wednesday attractions and the Thanksgiving day double bill. Included were films, "Stolen Honors" and "The Elusive Enemy." Friday's attractions will include "Night Shadows" and "The Oil Smeller," and on Saturday will be shown "The Wrath of Cactus Moore" and "Room Rent and Romance."

MAJESTIC-CHARLEROI

Worth while photoplays were produced this Thanksgiving week at the Majestic theatre, with the climax coming Thursday and Friday in the appearance of Mary Pickford, the justly famous and inimitable actress in her own company's production, "Less Than Dust." With scenes laid in England and India a great drama was unfolded. Large crowds attended the early performances and will attend the later ones Friday. Monday at the Majestic "The Flower of Faith" with Jane Grey in the starring role was well presented. Douglas Fairbanks in "Manhattan Madness" made a big hit on Tuesday. However one of the best days of the week was Wednesday when Alice Brady, noted for her wonderful work in photoplays, starred in "The Gilded Cage." Crowds nightly were entertained. For next Tuesday announcement is made of the coming of William Hart in "The Return of Drax Egan."

COYLE-CHARLEROI

Manager Coyle presented a double bill at the Coyle theatre Thanksgiving day, pleasing the crowds by popular productions. Charlie Chaplin appeared in a scream, "Behind the Scenes," in which he "broke loose" in a moving picture studio. Vivian Martin was featured in "Her Father's Son." In this Miss Martin plays a dual role. The film was delightful. Monday's attraction was the Fox drama, "Love and Hate," with Mme. Bertha Kalich. Released on the Paramount program the Tuesday Pallas picture "The Intrigue" with Lenore Ulrich, was a good one. Wednesday took rank among the other days of the week with the program of "The Brand of Cowardice," a Metro film in five parts with Lionel Barrymore and Grace Valentine featured. Friday, always a big day in point of attractiveness was conspicuous because of the reappearance of Mary Pickford in "Hulda From Holland," one of the most popular photoplays in which she ever starred.

NEW DAVIS-PITTSBURG

December will bring many brilliant and versatile people to Mr. Davis' polite varieties at the New Davis theatre. During the week which begins next Monday Professor Arnold De Biere, perhaps the most distinguished and certainly the most adaptable illusionist in Christendom and the pagan lands, too, will appear with his company in an elaborate entertainment in three parts. It is a performance full of excitement, interest and education and presents a bewildering display of modern illusions, including De Biere's most sensational creation, "The Bride of the Air." The finale of De Biere's program is said to be his masterpiece. It is the beautiful story of Leda and the Swan and presents "The Sculptor's Vision," a conception rivalling anything ever essayed by the great Hermann or Keller. Emma Carus, musical comedy star, and Harry Comer, the "Beau Brummel of Songland," will probably share stellar honors with the act of Professor De Biere. Billie Burke will present George Roland and Company in "The Vacuum Cleaners," a comedy. Ray Eleanor Ball, an exceptional violinist and a wonderfully pretty girl of temperament and personality, will play a group of selections. Maxine Brothers and their comedy dog, "Bobbie," a diminutive fox terrier, will do many things which will entertain and amuse.

Really Little Known of Poland. Poland's history, with its fight for freedom, justice and equality, its struggle in defense of Christianity and European civilization and its unselfishness in aiding the weak, made it famous among the world's nations, both in success and adversity. The achievements of the Polish nation in art, music, literature, science and religion are known as are the life deeds of its great men.

But the industries, mines, trade and natural wealth of that unhappy country have since its partition been to a great extent a sealed book to most of the people outside of the nations attempting to assimilate the Poles. This was principally due to the inability of people from the outside to break through the network of foreign governmental systems in which Poland is enmeshed.—Buffalo News

CHARLEROI TAKES

(Continued from page one.) stuter's, this being the debated one in the third quarter. It followed successively a forward pass that netted 15 yards, Stahlman to Piersol, and successive line drives by the backs.

The debated touchdown was closely followed by another. Lowstuter received the ball shortly after the kickoff for 20 yards of a gain around an end. A forward pass to Piersol brought 20 yards and another for a similar distance took him behind the line. Eagye failed on the kick.

In the last quarter it didn't take Charleroi long to show onora a few tricks. Donora had the ball. Some sort of a windup was attempted, when the ball was fumbled. Before it was finally recovered it had been fumbled four times. Lowstuter was the final one to seize it. Dodging tacklers he tore down the field for more than 40 yards for a touchdown that to him was easy. Eagye kicked.

Donora's lone touchdown was a brilliant piece of play. It came soon after Charleroi's score. Donora worked the forward pass. Fresa to Toth, and Toth eluding tacklers made a great run of 40 yards. Armstrong kicked goal. The Donora team played well the entire game. Armstrong was their star.

Charleroi high school played its best game of the year. The line was especially strong after the first few plays and the backs were all stars. The game leaves Charleroi the better of Monessen in point of score for the championship. These two teams tied. Monessen beat Donora only 13 to 6. Charleroi's defeat of Donora was by a much greater score. Charleroi is left tied with Washington, which on Turkey day beat Monongahela. Score:

Money No Object.

As an instance of the reckless character of the old time British far an English writer quotes the following authenticated reminiscence.

"One morning, as an officer was standing in Fore street, Devonport, his attention was drawn to three post-chaises, with four horses to each, drawn up at the door of the King's Arms hotel. These were presently driven off. On inquiring what great person had arrived, the officer was informed that all this display was the freak of a common sailor, who had just received £500 in prize money, and, having been granted but a week's leave, his ingenuity had devised the most ostentatious mode of getting rid of this windfall. He had hired one chaise and four for himself, another for his hat and a third for his cudgel. It was his intention to make the trip to London and back, which would, he hoped, nearly consume the whole sum."

A Window Washer's View.

A window washer was called upon one day to clean the windows of a business concern on the nineteenth floor of a skyscraper in lower Broadway. The cleaner paused in wonderment as he passed through the lines of typewriter operators as they clicked off their correspondence and went to the window and fastened the two straps dangling from his belt to hooks at the side of the window frame. He cast another surprised glance at the men operating the typewriters, and as he swung outward over the dizzy height, his weight sustained by the slender straps he muttered: "It's mighty odd how some people do make their living in this world anyway."—New York Telegram.

PRACTICAL HEALTH HINT.

Handkerchief Menace.

The pocket handkerchief should be abolished, because it is a source of infection long after a person has recovered from such diseases as infantile paralysis and even common colds, says Dr. F. Robbins in the Medical Record. "The day will come," he says, "when the customary cotton rag is replaced by the cheap and clean Japanese paper napkin, which is burned after it has been used. Infants and children are helpless against the rubbing of strange handkerchiefs over their perspiring and grimy faces. The public roller towel of the past was innocuous as compared to the family pocket handkerchief. Bitter experience will drive home the lesson that neglected noses, mouths and throats are largely, if not exclusively, responsible for the ultimate crippling of the unfortunate victims of disease and ignorance."
